Choice of browser

Creating, reviewing and editing pages in Earthwise™ is much easier in Firefox or Chrome because they allow the more advanced editorial functionality provided by the WikEd extension which can be turned on via your Preferences. Please refer to the Earthwise™ Writers' guide.

Getting started

Advice on all aspects of writing can be found in the Earthwise writers' guide. Guidance of particular relevance to getting started can be found under:

- Browser settings
- Preferences
- New page

BGS authors should prepare, edit and approve their articles within GeoSource then request that they are made public through the Earthwise™ Team. Please refer to the GeoSource Writers' guide.

Earthwise™ panel

Scientific review of articles submitted for publication will be managed by the Earthwise™ panel made up of subject experts and editors. In certain circumstances experts may be co-opted to this panel from outside BGS.
